EQUIBASE ANNOUNCES 2013 YEARBOOK APP FOR IPHONE & ANDROID

Equibase Company today announced the release of the 2013 edition of the Equibase Racing Yearbook application (app) for iPhone and Android, which now includes the current year plus all previous editions of the Yearbook (2010, 2011 and 2012).

For each year of racing, the app offers video replays provided by Roberts Communications and full charts including pari-mutuel payoffs of all graded stakes races including the Triple Crown and Breeders' Cup.

"With this new edition, fans will be able to follow the 2013 races throughout the year and relive the best of racing from the past three years," said Chris Dawahare, manager of eBusiness and development for Equibase.

The 2013 Equibase Racing Yearbook app can be downloaded at itunes.com and play.google.com for $1.99. A free web version of the Equibase Racing Yearbook is available at equibase.com.

The Equibase Racing Yearbook app was developed by The Jockey Club Technology Services Inc., which also developed Equibase's Today's Racing™ app and its mobile website, both of which offer fans access to entries, results, and scratches and changes information, plus Virtual Stable®.

Equibase Company is a partnership between The Jockey Club and the Thoroughbred Racing Associations of North America and serves as the Thoroughbred industry's official database. Through its website, mobile platform and mobile applications, Equibase offers a comprehensive menu of wagering products, statistical information and video race replays in support of the North American Thoroughbred racing industry. Additional information is available at equibase.com.
