BELMONT STAKES CHARITY CELEBRATION RAISES $400,000 FOR EQUINE RESEARCH AND RETIREMENT FOUNDATIONS

The Belmont Stakes Charity Celebration, held at Bobby Flay's Bar Americain in New York City Thursday night, raised approximately $400,000, which will be evenly divided between the Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation and the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation. Approximately 300 people attended the event.

Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation is the nation's leading source of private equine research funding and helps all breeds of horses; the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation (TRF) is the largest equine sanctuary in the world and is devoted to the rescue, retirement, rehabilitation, and retraining of Thoroughbreds.

The evening featured a live auction and the presentation to Flay of the Earle I. Mack Thoroughbred Champion Award, annually given to an individual for outstanding efforts and influence on Thoroughbred race-horse welfare, safety and retirement.

Among the highlights of the auction:

- A 2013 "Breeders' Cup Extravaganza," which includes private, round-trip jet travel from the New York area to Los Angeles, sold for $62,000. The winning bidder was Fred Hertrich III.
- Two "Dream Vacations in Tuscany," which each feature a one-week stay a farmhouse on the La Foce estate, sold for $25,000 and $24,000. The winning bidders were Bob Masterson and Vinnie Viola.
- A "Travers Weekend Spectacular," which featured four nights of luxurious lodging and an owner's box for five people Friday, Saturday and Sunday, sold for $18,000. The winning bidder was Virginia Guest Valentine.

- A halter worn by European sensation Frankel sold for $18,000. The winning bidder was Ronald Frankel.

“We are immensely grateful to all of the people and organizations who supported this event,” said Diana Pikulski, vice president of external affairs of TRF. “Each of them demonstrated a sincere commitment to the proper care for Thoroughbreds when their racing careers have ended.”

“The many improvements in surgical techniques and disease control through the years have been made possible by equine research, and the success of an event like this enables us to fund additional research that will help all horses in the future,” said Dell Hancock, chairman of the Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation.

Following is a summary of the other six auction items.

- Two tickets to this Sunday’s Tony Awards sold for $4,500 each to both Evan Eads and Bruce Lunsford.
- Richard Meister was the winning bidder ($3,000) for tickets to the American Music Awards in Los Angeles in November.
- Peter Bradley was the winning bidder ($22,000) for a breeding right to Mineshaft.
- Rock Talk Farm was the winning bidder ($20,000) for a breeding right to Ghostzapper.
- Alan Quartucci was the winning bidder ($45,000) for a breeding right to Animal Kingdom.
- Barry Weisbord was the winning bidder ($52,000) for a breeding right to Kitten’s Joy.

*All four of the seasons were sold with a right of free return if the mares fail to produce a live foal from the 2014 cover.

Additional information about the event can be obtained by visiting grayson-jockeyclub.org; additional information about the TRF is available at trfinc.org.

THOROUGHBRED OWNERVIEW ADDS SECTIONS ON VETERINARY CARE AND RACETRACKS

OwnerView, the free, informational website developed by The Jockey Club and the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association (TOBA) to assist prospective, new and current Thoroughbred owners, has added sections devoted to veterinary care and racetracks.

The “Veterinary” section helps owners understand the role of the veterinarian in managing their Thoroughbreds; the “Racetrack” section provides a variety of details about virtually every Thoroughbred track in North America.

“The new sections on OwnerView.com contain valuable, factual information pertaining to the care of Thoroughbreds and the venues at which to race them,” said Gary Falter, vice president of operations for The Jockey Club and project manager for OwnerView.

Within the Veterinary section, visitors can research equine health topics, learn about racetrack injuries, become better educated about equine welfare and health considerations, review a list of equine hospitals, search for a veterinarian, and review Q & A in the “Ask a Vet” section.

This new section was developed in partnership with the American Association of Equine Practitioners (AAEP).

“The AAEP’s mission is to improve the health and welfare of the horse and we can do that by providing information to Thoroughbred owners,” said Dr. Scott Hay, chairman of the AAEP’s Racing Committee. “We are proud to be the source of veterinary information for the OwnerView initiative.”

The Racetrack section of OwnerView was developed with input from Thoroughbred owners and several tracks, including Keeneland, NYRA, Woodbine, Del Mar and Arlington Park. This new section lists most Thoroughbred tracks in the U.S. and Canada, grouped by their daily average purse distribution, and provides information such as address, race dates, owner hospitality contact, and links to each track’s website. “By presenting information such as daily average purse distribution, we can help the owner determine venues in which their horses will be competitive,” Falter said. “It will also help owners find contact information for all the tracks in one convenient location.”

OwnerView was launched by The Jockey Club and TOBA in May 2012, in the wake of McKinsey & Company’s economic study of the sport that recommended a central resource that would encourage Thoroughbred ownership and provide accurate information about purchasing and owning a Thoroughbred.

OwnerView includes information about trainers, racing syndicates, licensing, aftercare, and state incentive programs. For more information, visit OwnerView.com.

TOBA, based in Lexington, Ky., was formed in 1961 and is a national trade organization of leading Thoroughbred horse breeders and owners. TOBA’s mission is to improve the economics, integrity and pleasure of the sport on behalf of Thoroughbred owners and breeders. Projects managed by TOBA include the American Graded Stakes Committee, The Racing Game, Sales Integrity Program, and Claiming Crown. Thoroughbred Charities of America is the charitable arm of TOBA. TOBA is the owner of The Blood-Horse Inc. and is represented on the board of directors of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association as a founding member.

AMERICA’S BEST RACING BECOMES OFFICIAL NEW FAN ENGAGEMENT PARTNER OF THE BREEDERS’ CUP.

NEW YORK (July 1, 2013) – The Breeders’ Cup and The Jockey Club announced today that the Breeders’ Cup will sponsor America’s Best Racing ABRV traveling experience vehicle in its cross country journey to promote Thoroughbred racing and the Breeders’ Cup this year.

The ABRV is a 45-foot streamliner bus manned by six, young horse-racing brand ambassadors who are traveling to venues across the country in a peer-to-peer marketing campaign targeting Millennials. The ABRV kicked off its tour at the South by Southwest event in Austin, TX in March and made stops in Atlanta, Miami, Baltimore, Lexington, Louisville and New York since then.

Over the course of the next several months, the bus and the ambassadors will make stops and promote Thoroughbred racing at the following locations: Oceanport (NJ), Saratoga Springs (NY), Chicago, San Diego and Los Angeles. The tour will culminate with an appearance at the Breeders’ Cup World Championships at Santa Anita Park (Arcadia, CA) on November 1-2.

Breeders’ Cup has also selected America’s Best Racing (followhorserac ing.com), a multi-media new fan development and awareness-building platform initiated by The Jockey Club, to become the official new fan engagement partner of the Breeders' Cup. America's Best Racing will create and provide select, original digital content for the Breeders' Cup and further help to promote and raise awareness of Thoroughbred racing's year end Championship across earned, social and digital media platforms. Additionally, Breeders' Cup Limited and The Jockey Club intend to explore a variety of promotional, marketing, sponsorship, media and advertising opportunities, as well as to consider financing new initiatives in the area of technology and interactive games.

The Jockey Club and the Breeders' Cup share a common vision about the future of Thoroughbred racing," said Jason Wilson, The Jockey Club's Vice President of Business Development. "This collaboration will accelerate efforts to drive sustainable growth for Thoroughbred racing and breeding and it is a great way for two industry leaders to leverage resources dedicated for the betterment of the sport and our fans."

"We are very pleased to partner with The Jockey Club in sponsoring the ABRV and maximizing exposure for the America's Best Racing website," said Breeders' Cup Chief Marketing Officer Drew Sheinman. "It is the mission of both the Breeders' Cup and The Jockey Club to aggressively promote the sport of Thoroughbred racing to as a wide an audience as possible utilizing the combined resources of our marketing, digital and social outreach."

About The Jockey Club:

The Jockey Club, founded in 1894 and dedicated to the improvement of Thoroughbred breeding and racing, is the breed registry for North American Thoroughbreds. In fulfillment of its mission, The Jockey Club, directly or through subsidiaries, provides support and leadership on a wide range of important industry initiatives, and it serves the information and technology needs of owners, breeders, media, fans and farms. Additional information is available at jockeyclub.com. The Jockey Club is the architect and sole funding source for America's Best Racing, a broad-based fan development initiative for Thoroughbred racing that is also promoted and publicized by NTRA Communications. You can follow America's Best Racing at www.followhorseracing.com as well as on social media platforms Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, Google+, and Instagram).

About Breeders' Cup:

The Breeders' Cup administers the Breeders' Cup World Championships, Thoroughbred racing's year-end Championships. The Breeders' Cup also administers the Breeders' Cup Challenge qualifying series, which provides automatic starting positions into the Championships races. The 2013 World Championships will be held at Santa Anita Park in Arcadia, Calif., on Nov. 1-2, and will be televised live on the NBC Sports Network and NBC in the US. The $5 million Breeders' Cup Classic will be shown live and in primetime on NBC. Breeders' Cup press releases appear on the Breeders' Cup Web site, www.breederscup.com. You can also follow the Breeders' Cup on social media platforms, Facebook, Twitter and YouTube.
