TOBA TO HOLD OWNERSHIP SEMINAR AT KEENELAND ON APRIL 18

LEXINGTON, Ky. – The Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association (TOBA) will hold a Thoroughbred Ownership Seminar on Friday, April 18, 2014 at Keeneland Race Course in Lexington, Ky. The seminar, sponsored by Blood-Horse Publications, will feature approaches to success, options for acquiring horses and resources for Thoroughbred owners. Attendees will have the opportunity to watch the morning workouts, participate in a new “virtual ownership” session on the backstretch, and wrap up the event with an afternoon of racing. The seminar will also be available as a webcast.

The agenda will soon be available at www.toba.org. TOBA's seminars and clinics are held throughout the country each year; the complete schedule can be viewed at www.toba.org. These educational events are informative for both new and current Thoroughbred owners and breeders. TOBA members receive a discounted rate for each clinic and non-members can join TOBA today.

TOBA, based in Lexington, Ky., was formed in 1961 and is a national trade organization of leading Thoroughbred breeders and owners. TOBA's mission is to “improve the economics, integrity and pleasure of the sport on behalf of Thoroughbred owners and breeders.” Projects managed by TOBA include the American Graded Stakes Committee, Claiming Crown, Ownership Seminars, Ownerview.com and the Sales Integrity Program. TOBA provides international representation for U.S. owners and breeders on the International Grading and Race Planning Advisory Committee, International Cataloguing Standards Committee and International Breeders Federation. Thoroughbred Charities of America (TCA) is the charitable arm of TOBA. TOBA is the owner of The Blood-Horse Inc., and is represented on the Board of Directors of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association and the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium as founding members.

WELFARE AND SAFETY OF THE RACEHORSE SUMMIT V SCHEDULED FOR JULY 8-9, 2014, AT KEENELAND

The Jockey Club and Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation today announced that the fifth Welfare and Safety of the Racehorse Summit will be held Tuesday, July 8, and Wednesday, July 9, 2014, in Lexington, Ky.

Once again, the summit will be underwritten and coordinated by The Jockey Club and Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation and hosted by the Keeneland Association. The two-day workshop brings together a wide cross-section of the breeding, racing and veterinary communities.

“We owe it to our athletes, both equine and human, to do all we can to ensure their safety and convening this summit to exchange ideas and develop new programs is one of the best ways we can do that,” said Edward L. Bowen, president, Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation.

The summit will be held in the Keeneland sales pavilion and it is open to the public; a live webcast will also be available.

“The safety and welfare of our athletes is unquestionably priority No. 1,” said Keeneland President & CEO Bill Thomason. “Keeneland is proud to host this summit which has, in its brief history, a proven track record of successfully advancing initiatives that are vital to the integrity and health of racing.”

A formal agenda and a list of speakers will be announced at a later date.

Among the major accomplishments that have evolved from the previous four summits are the Equine Injury Database; the Jockey Injury Database; the Racing Surfaces Testing Laboratory, which provides science-based testing of racing surfaces to enhance safety for horse and rider; a uniform trainer test and study guide; the publication of stallion durability statistics; and the movement by state racing commissions to create regulations that void the claim of horses suffering fatalities during the conduct of the race.

Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation is traditionally the nation's leading source of private funding for equine medical research that benefits all breeds of horses. Since 1983, the foundation has provided approximately $19.9 million for 299 specific projects at 40 universities. Additional information about the foundation is available at grayson-jockeyclub.org.

THOROUGHbred INCENTIVE PROGRAM ANNOUNCES 2013 PERFORMANCE AWARDS WINNERS

The Jockey Club Thoroughbred Incentive Program (T.I.P.), which encourages the retraining of Thoroughbreds into other disciplines upon completion of careers in racing or breeding, today announced the winners and other placings from its 2013 performance awards pilot program.

The performance awards recognize Thoroughbreds accumulating the most points at all horse shows in each of the award categories and divisions throughout the year.

“We had an excellent response to the pilot program,” said Kristin Leshney, legal associate for The Jockey Club and the administrator of T.I.P. “We received 150 applications representing 78 Thoroughbreds, and 25 states and Ontario.”

Because the pilot program was so successful, performance awards will be available once again in 2014 and will include shows from December 1, 2013, through November 30, 2014. Category winners in 2014 will receive a ribbon and leather lead shank and division winners will receive a ribbon and T.I.P. customized lead rope.

The 2014 performance award information will be collected online through the

Fax: 317-755-1320

T.I.P. website at tjctip.com. The deadline for submission is December 20, 2014.

Over the next few weeks, the 2013 performance award winners' photos will be posted on the T.I.P. Facebook page at facebook.com/tjctip. The complete list of winners can be found at the bottom of the release.

Created and announced in October 2011, T.I.P. recognizes and rewards the versatility of the Thoroughbred through sponsorship of Thoroughbred classes and high point awards at sanctioned horse shows. In addition to the complete schedule of T.I.P.-sponsored shows, other information about the program is also available on the T.I.P. website, tjctip.com. Those interested in T.I.P. can follow the program at facebook.com/tjctip.

THE JOCKEY CLUB DENIES STUD BOOK PRIVILEGES TO FOUR TRAINERS FOR VIOLATIONS

The Jockey Club announced today that one trainer will be denied all privileges of The American Stud Book for 10 years and that three other trainers will be denied the same privileges for three years. All actions became effective January 1, 2014.

The denials of privileges include the privilege of registering foals and the privileges of any registration process for any Thoroughbred. The denials of privileges are pursuant to Rule 19 of the Principal Rules and Requirements of The American Stud Book.

Anthony C. Agilar will be denied privileges for 10 years, starting January 1, 2014, for being determined to have twice violated applicable racing authority statutes, rules or regulations relating to substances that have been classified by the Association of Racing Commissioners International Inc. (RCI) as Class 1 or Class 2. The violations occurred at Evangeline Downs in 2012.

John T. Toscano Jr. will be denied privileges for three years, starting January 1, 2014, for being determined to have violated applicable racing authority statutes, rules or regulations relating to substances that have been classified by the RCI as Class 1 or Class 2. That violation occurred at Belmont Park in 2012.

Lonnie H. Vaughn will be denied privileges for three years, starting January 1, 2014, for being determined to have violated applicable racing authority statutes, rules or regulations relating to substances that have been classified by the RCI as Class 1 or Class 2. That violation occurred at Ruidoso Downs in 2012.

Daniel J. Werre will be denied privileges for three years, starting January 1, 2014, for violating applicable racing authority statutes, rules or regulations relating to substances that have been classified by the RCI as Class 1 or Class 2. That violation occurred at Turfway Park in 2012.

The entire text of Rule 19 can be found at registry.jockeyclub.com/registry.cfm?Page=tjcRuleBook#nineteen.
