

ITOBA

Indiana Thoroughbred Owners & Breeders Association

Photos by Linscott Photography

LADY FOG HORN SCORES ANOTHER STAKES WIN AT INDIANA GRAND RACING & CASINO

SHELBYVILLE, Ind.; – Oct. 7, 2015 – Lady Fog Horn and Indiana Grand’s Leading Jockey Albin Jimenez scored another stakes win to extend their win streak to three in the seventh running of the $85,000-added Hoosier Breeders Sophomore Stakes – Filly Division Wednesday, Oct. 7. The duo now has three straight stakes wins to their credit in 2015 at Indiana Grand Racing & Casino.

Lady Fog Horn has proved in the past that she is versatile, leaving Jimenez with a lot of options early on from post one. He guided the three-year-old Zavata filly out of the starting gate with enough speed to land in mid pack as She Mabee Wild and Rodney Prescott and Rockin Cityweekend both rallied out quickly from the outside to secure the top two spots heading into the first turn of the one and one-sixteenth mile race. As the field straightened up down the backside, Rockin Cityweekend kept pressure on She Mabee Wild through early fractions of :24.66 and :49.10. Just before the halfway point, Jimenez moved Lady Fog Horn to the outside and joined the top two sitting three wide before clearing to the front heading into the final turn.

Lady Fog Horn was in control of the top by the top of the stretch, but Prescott made one final move with She Mabee Wild to the outside and the two fillies matched strides for a few steps before Lady Fog Horn found another gear and moved solo to the lead, posting a three and three-quarter length victory in a time of 1:44.09. She Mabee Wild was nearly five lengths ahead of the rest of the field for second as Joyous Lady and Tommy Pompell moved up for third.

“I let her (Lady Fog Horn) do what she wanted to do today,” said Jimenez. “She wanted to go so I let her go. Once she was on the lead, she was relaxed. When the five (She Mabee Wild) came up next to her, I asked her and she took off again.”

Lady Fog Horn is now four for six in 2015 and has won five of her last six starts. She increased her bankroll to more than $300,000 with her win in the Hoosier Breeders Sophomore Stakes – Filly Division for Stuart Grant’s The Elkstone Group, who also raised the filly. Tony Granitz is the trainer of Lady Fog Horn, who was double entered in the Hoosier Breeders Sophomore Stakes – Filly Division and the Richmond Stakes on the Wednesday card at Indiana Grand.

“I left it up to the owners as to which stakes race to run in today with her (Lady Fog Horn),” said Granitz. “She was on her game today and was impressive in the stretch. The plan is to run her again on the 31st (Saturday, Oct. 31st) against the older fillies and mares going long ($150,000-guaranteed Frances Slocum Stakes).”

Lady Fog Horn paid $2.80, $2.20, $2.10 as the favorite of the six-horse field.

Live Thoroughbred and Quarter Horse racing continues at Indiana Grand through Saturday, Oct. 31, racing at 2:05 p.m. Tuesday through Friday with Saturday racing held at 6:05 p.m.

About Indiana Grand Racing & Casino: Indiana Grand Racing & Casino, a Centaur Gaming destination, holds multiple awards from industry publications for customer service, entertainment, gaming and dining. Located in Shelbyville, Ind., Indiana Grand features 2,200 of the latest slots and electronic table games in addition to a one-mile oval race course offering live Thoroughbred and Quarter Horse racing each year. Simulcast wagering is also offered year-round at Indiana Grand Racing & Casino as well as an off-track betting facility located in Clarksville, Ind. For more information, please visit www.IndianaGrand.com or www.CentaurGaming.net.

