2016 Indiana Race Dates Approved

The Indiana Horse Racing Commission approved the 2016 race dates during their meeting on December 9, 2015. In addition, a presentation was made by Jim Brown, President and COO of Centaur Gaming regarding both Indiana Grand's and Hoosier Park's race meets that recently concluded. The presentation highlighted the successes at each track, capital improvements and marketing efforts during the 2015 meet.

Indiana Grand (Shelbyville, Indiana) proposed and was approved for a total of 120 of Thoroughbred and Quarter Horse racing, commencing on Tuesday, April 19, 2016 and concluding on Saturday, October 29, 2016. 114 days will be devoted to Thoroughbred racing with occasional Quarter Horse racing added into the days racing program. Six days will be devoted exclusively to Quarter Horse racing. Post time for weekdays will be 2:15 p.m. and 6:05 p.m. on Saturdays.

Hoosier Park (Anderson, Indiana) proposed and was granted a total of 160 days of Standardbred racing, commencing on Friday, April 1, 2016 and concluding on Saturday, November 12, 2016. Racing will take place Tuesdays through Saturdays with a post time of 5:45 p.m.

You can find a downloadable calendar of the 2016 race dates, along with additional information about racing in Indiana, by visiting the IHRC's website at www.in.gov/hrc.
