CENTAUR GAMING RELEASES 2017 STATE & COMMUNITY IMPACT REPORT

Indianapolis, Ind.—April 10, 2018— Indiana-owned and operated Centaur Gaming has officially released its 2017 State & Community Impact Report, highlighting the company’s entertainment and economic benefits. Since 2008, Centaur has provided to the cities of Anderson and Shelbyville, the counties of Madison and Shelby, the state of Indiana, and the Indiana horse racing industry more than $2.4 billion in taxes, fees, and incentive payments.

With five properties employing more than 2,000 team members and hosting approximately six million visitors each year, Centaur is dedicated to being an outstanding community partner and making a positive impact in the state of Indiana.

Centaur’s two premier entertainment destinations – Hoosier Park Racing & Casino in Anderson, Ind. and Indiana Grand Racing & Casino in Shelbyville, Ind. – feature state-of-the-art casino gambling floors, live and simulcast horse racing, award-winning dining selections, and world-class entertainment. Both properties have offered a full gaming and racing experience since 2008.

In addition to the casino and race track properties, Centaur also owns and operates three Winner’s Circle properties: Winner’s Circle Pub, Grille & OTB in downtown Indianapolis, Winner’s Circle OTB & VooDoo BBQ & Grill in New Haven/Fort Wayne and Winner’s Circle OTB in Clarksville.

“Since 1993, Centaur has worked to expand pari-mutuel horse racing into a $1 billion industry annually, touching all 92 counties in Indiana and providing thousands of jobs to hard-working Hoosiers,” said Centaur Gaming Chairman & CEO Rod Ratcliff. “We went on to become Indiana’s only gaming and racing company, and an employer of 2,000 team members each year. For nearly a decade, we’ve had the honor to hold that responsibility. To this day, our properties continue to receive community and industry recognition for what we have accomplished.
